— MAURIZIO, ITALY

“ I had the absolute best experience with Ai-Liang. She adapts to my level of knowledge, challenges and encourages me, and gives me a good feeling about steadily improving my English. Already after the 3rd lesson, I feel more confident with the language, and her enthusiasm for understanding English has now also rubbed off on me! Be careful, with her you will lose your fear and finally enjoy it! She gets 5 stars! ”

— LEONI, GERMANY

“ I am extremely impressed. This is not just a regular language meeting, but an incredible experience. The tutor has a unique, incredibly calming voice that makes all the stress associated with speaking English disappear immediately. Her approach to teaching is unique – she explains concepts in a vivid and almost spiritual way, which makes the knowledge itself fall into place in your mind. You can immediately sense that she is someone with great erudition and literary talent, which translates into beautiful language and depth of expression. If you are looking for someone who will not only teach you vocabulary but also inspire you to love English, this is the best choice. I highly recommend! ”
